

PRIVACY NOTICE

TO COMPLY WITH DATA PROTECTION LEGISLATION, ALL MEMBERS MUST READ THIS NOTICE, COMPLETE THE TICK BOXES BELOW AND RETURN TO THE BREED SECRETARY BY POST OR EMAIL

1. The British White Cattle Society will collect and retain your personal information (name, address, telephone number/s and email address) upon application for membership and, in our role as data controller, will be committed to keeping this information safe.
2. The Society will enlist the services of data processors (including – but not limited to – the BWCS Breed Secretary and Grassroots Systems Ltd.) to process this data on behalf of the Society.
3. Your information will only be used to perform operations within the legitimate interest of the Society and its members, as outlined in the Society Rules – Objects of the Society.
4. In practice, this means that your information will be included within the annual Herd Book (circulated only to members of the Society) and on the Grassroots online database (accessible only to members of the Society).
5. Your information may also be released to individuals enquiring about the breed e.g. herds with cattle for sale, only where the Society and/or its data processors deem that enquiry to be genuine.
6. The Society will retain the information you provide to us only for as long as is necessary to perform operations within the legitimate interest of the Society and its members.
7. You have the right to ask us to amend, delete or provide you with any of your own personal data.
8. Should the Society require any other personal information from you, or wish to use your personal data for a specific purpose not outlined in this notice, we will ask for your consent pertaining to each individual matter.
